Tiger Woods is coming back...

Although Tiger Woods has not announced when an official return date to the tour, many industry experts/analysts suggest he could come back as early as March. Woods had expressed progress of his recovery on his own website tigerwoods.com stating that "I started hitting longer irons and my driver. I'm not swinging as hard as I can, but I'm working towards that goal". If the recovery continues to progress, Woods, who is currently ranked #1 on PGA, is expected to be fully ready for this year's Masters Championship and aiming for his fifth title at Augusta, GA.

Braves sign its first Japanese pitcher...

The Atlanta Braves have signed Kenshin Kawakami on January 13 with three-year deal. Kawakami comes from the Chunichi Dragons of the Central League in Japan where he won Rookie of the Year, the League MVP, pitched a no-hitter, and recorded the most wins in one season. He also received a Golden Glove Award and the Sawamura Award, which is given to the League's best pitcher each year. The 33-year-old, right-handed pitcher is expected to draw great attention from local and overseas fans alike!
